1. John Washington ADAMS<sup>1</sup> was born on 17 Aug 1924 in Altro, Breathitt, KY.<sup>1</sup> He died on 18 Jul 1984 in Naples, Collier Co, FL.<sup>2</sup> He was cremated in 1984 in Naples, Collier Co, FL. John was raised in Newport Kentucky during the depression. In 1941, while serving at home in the U.S Army, he was accused of murder, tried, and sentenced to life in prison. Nearly 10 years later, while serving as secretary to the prison Warden, John met and befriended the parish priest who visited the prison regularly. When the priest heard my father's story he realized that he had taken the confession of the actual murderer just before his death. The priest revealed this fact to the Warden. The warden liked John and saw to it that this new evidence was brought out. Within a short time the State commuted John's sentence and he was released.

John married Mildred in 1951 and went on to distinguish himself as a leader in the construction business building everything from single family homes to High-rises. He was a man of great humor and wit, and was loved and respected by his children and everyone who knew him.

DICKEY DIARY INTERVIEWS:

FELIX BEGLEY & POLLY NORTH

P. 2204: Felix T. Begley - Bull Creek, March 27, 1895. I was born March 6, 1834 in Leslie County, then Perry near the mouth of Cutshin. My great grandfather and father Begley came from Ireland. He was a weaver by trade. He came with my grandfather and is buried on Cutshin. He had a by-word "damn-an-it". He spoke broken English. My grandmother was Minny Sizemore. She was a daughter of "Old George Of All" Sizemore, who came with my grandfather, Wm Begley from Hawkins County, Tenn.

P. 2205: He had sons as follows: - Henry, John, Ned, and George: Minny (Wm Begley), Rhoda (Roberts), Ruth (John Jones), Susan (Bolling). "Old George of All" was a hairy man and a prize-fighter. He wounded Wm Twitty in a fight, so that he died. Sizemore nursed Twitty, would cry and tell him he had nothing against him. All he asked of him was to fight him again if he got well. Sizemore is a Cherokee Indian name. He is said to be half or more Indian. The Sizemores are very numerous in the mountains. The Sizemores settled first on Middle Fork, then went to Clay, Floyd and other Counties. (Polly North, 85 years old, whose mother was Rhoda Sizemore say they came from New River. J.J.D.)

Mrs. Polly North - (Cutshin, March 27 1878)(Perry) I am 85 years old, was born in this county. My father was a Wilder, my mother Rhoda Sizemore. The first preacher I ever heard was Chenault, a Baptist and he preached on Cutshin. Wm Mattingly was the first school teacher. I remember he taught when I was a child. My grandmother's maiden name was Aggie Shepherd. I remember [[Page 2206]] to have heard my grandfather Sizemore say to her "Dam-an-it Shepherd I can't stand you much longer". At Glades on Bower's Creek John Gilbert killed a wolf. It had killed a two year old mule of his. He rode on the pelt as long as he lived. I have seen Rev. John Gilbert have to hold on to the fence because he had taken a dram too much. I have heard him say a many a time at the close of the service on Sunday as he would start to the door, "Dear, dear me, brethren have you any bull yearlings to sell?"

I have wove many a yard of cloth from nettle which grew wild. It made white cloth. (the old lady chews tobacco. J.J.D.)

P. 2210: About 28 March 1878: (Felix Begley tells me that old Aggie Sizemore the wife of "Old George of All" used to roast terrapins alive as the Indians used to do. Other things he told me that I am sure she was the Cherokee instead of Sizemore.

J.J.D.) Old Aggie wanted to take a scull which was found under a cliff, for a soap dish.

When George All grew to manhood it seems most evident that he married the Indian girl whom Mr. Cornett raised. George All and Aggy Shepherd thus became the progenitors of the Leslie County Sizemores. Shepherd was Aggy's Indian name. She was sometimes called Shepherd and sometimes Cornett.

Their children were: Henry, John, Edward, George, Sally Ann who married Eli Couch, Minerva (Winnie) who married William (Bill) Begley, Rhoda who married a Roberts and a Wilder, Ruth who married John Jones and Susan who married a Bowling.

In the 1856 Mortality List for Clay County it is shown that Edward died November 27, 1856 at the age of 78. He was born in Shenandoah County Virginia, the son of George and Agnes Sizemore. George All was born around 1750-55 and Agnes Cornett around 1763. The Clay County tax list shows that George and Edward both paid taxes in 1807.

According to Government testimonies the Sizemore family made application for obtaining grants of funds under the 1835 and 1846 Treaties with the Cherokee Indians. However, from information available George All and Aggy were not among those applying for grants or funds. The family known to have applied was another George Sizemore known as George Gullie, Goulden or Golliden. He was also referred to as Golden Hawk Sizemore. He was born in North Carolina in 1783 and lived in Magoffin and Floyd Counties. He married Sallie Anderson in Hawkins County, Tennessee. The 1860, 1870 and 1880 Census lists the children of George Golden and Sallie Sizemore as having been born in Floyd and Magoffin Counties. They appear to have been related to the Leslie County Sizemores. In fact, T. C. Sizemore claims to be a direct descendant of Golden Hawk.

There is evidence that Chief Red Bird mentioned in the Indian Lore of this book was the father of the Leslie County Sizemores. Ruch Sizemore, a son of Chief George All's daughter, claimed that Chief Red Bird was his father.

Information from: Manchester Enterprise

George All and Aggie settled in what is now Leslie County, owning most of the land opposite the town site of Hyden. This land was later owned by son John and wife, Nancy who built the first home in this section now known as Hyden. In 1842 John sold the property to James Lewis.

Note:

excerpt from an article on the George All Sizemore and Aggy Shepard connection to the Creeks and the Whitetop Laurel Band of Cherokees. "The marriage of George 'ALL' Sizemore to Aggy Shepard originated from a raid of Indians on the white man's camp where they captured a white girl. In retaliation, the white men followed and rescued the girl and captured an Indian girl who was later given to a white family to raise (Aggy). Aggy is thought to have been a Creek Indian. George lived in both the white man's world, and the Whitetop Cherokee tribe throughout his life."
